Seeds of Hope Granting Program Applicant Guidebook

Introduction

The United Church of Canada and The United Church of Canada Foundation jointly run the Seeds of Hope granting program. Funds granted through this program come from the trusts and endowments held by the United Church and its Foundation. Individuals and families created these trusts and endowments with a goal of providing for the future of the church. We remain grateful for their enduring generosity.

Governance

The Joint Grants Committee of the United Church and the Foundation oversees the granting program. Volunteers from the Executive of the General Council and the Foundation's Board of Directors comprise the Committee. The Committee's role is to review applications, recommend awards and ensure that the funds granted are in keeping with the wishes of the donors who established the trusts and endowments.

This intent of this Guidebook is to answer frequently asked questions about the program and to assist interested groups in submitting strong and complete applications. Use the Guidebook in conjunction with the most up-to-date application form and the list of funds that will be providing grants in the relevant cycle.

Process

Each calendar year, there are two granting cycles: one in the spring and one in the fall. The Committee only accepts applications during these times. Typically, the spring cycle opens mid-January and closes in April; the fall cycle opens in June and closes in October.

The first step in the application process is to make sure you are using the current application form. You may download a copy from the Foundation's website in the Grant Information section at www.unitedchurchfoundation.ca When there is no application form on the website applications are not being accepted.

The Committee reviews and updates the application form every granting cycle. Please use the most current form and fill it out completely. After reading the information below, should you have questions please contact the Foundation at fdn@united-church.ca or 1-866-340-8223 (toll-free).

Part One: Details about Your Organization

Contact Details

Part One provides the contact information for the group applying for funding so that we may seek answers to any questions about your application and notify applicants of decisions. It also provides the Joint Grants Committee with information about the organization or group's previous involvement with the program.

Application Approval

This part of the form indicates the project has support from the appropriate governing bodies. If your project requires approval from presbytery (e.g. in the case of capital renovations), please include appropriate documentation of the approval.

Part Two: Details about your Project

Part Two provides a detailed description of your project. This section helps the Committee make an informed decision and group applications according to theme. It also provides insight as to where you see your project or program fitting into the overall work of the church. Please be clear and concise.

Funding Cycle

The spring cycle is usually January to April. The fall cycle is usually June to October.

Fund You are Applying To

It is important that you choose the fund that best fits with your project. The list of funds providing grants in a given cycle is available from the Foundation's website.

Project Title

Please use a title you would like to see in print should your project or program be awarded funds. Try to make it succinct and descriptive.

Is this a New Project?

The Seeds of Hope granting program is intended to provide seed money for new, innovative and unique projects. It does not fund annual operational costs. Money may be used to start a program or project that, once underway, will be self-sustaining. You will have a stronger application if the project or program for which you are applying is a new initiative.

Targeted Project Implementation and Completion Dates

Please be specific. If your project will continue beyond the funding you are applying for, use the date by which the activities the grant would support will be completed.

Project Team Members

This section provides the Committee with assurance that a team with expertise and passion for the work will support the project or program.

Project Description

Please be concise and as descriptive as possible. This portion of the application is the executive summary or brief overview of the project. You will provide specifics about how you will carry out the program or project later in the application. This should give the Committee an idea of what you wish to accomplish and an overview of how you will do it.

For example: “The ABC project will provide teenagers with leadership, mentoring and life saving skills through coaching on how to plan and lead safe, fun and educational afterschool programs. Each participant will receive first aid and leadership training. They will be matched with one or two children between the ages of five and 11 and will provide a program that runs twice weekly from 3:30 to 6 p.m. focussing on physical activity, homework assistance and socialization.”

Project Uniqueness

This tells the Committee how your initiative is different from other programs in your area and/or larger geographic region. This is important because the Committee values innovation.

Project Goals and Objectives

List goals and objectives that are concrete, well defined, achievable, actionable, and realistic. Make sure they relate to the outcomes of your program and reflect how your project will be carried out.

Plan for Achieving Stated Goals and Objectives

For each of your goals and objectives outline the steps you will take to attain them.

Plan for Project Implementation and Delivery

Outline the timelines for each step or phase of your project or program and provide details on how you will ensure the steps or phases are completed.

Project Beneficiaries
